

Final phase of Big Lottery funding to get your accredited voluntary sector management qualification

Is this email not displaying correctly?
View it in your browser.

Funding up to £1,285 per person

Gain your accredited voluntary sector management qualification

Book today...limited places available

Final Phase of the Big lottery Funding

The clock is ticking for those working in the Voluntary Sector to access funding for the 'PG Certificate in Voluntary Sector Management'. Developed by the sector, for the sector, this highly acclaimed qualification includes key modules to help organisations plan and prepare for a sustainable future. It is now recognised by key partners as a leading professional qualification and clearly demonstrates the commitment of participating organisations to building good leadership & management practice.

Delivered by Edge Hill University, the PG

 Forward to a Friend

Turbo - Charging Skills

Funded by the Big Lottery

January 2012 Start Dates

PG Certificate in Voluntary Sector Management

Certificate in Voluntary Sector Management includes a choice of three modules from the following:

Managing People in Voluntary and Third Sector Organisations

An essential module to help you engage, develop and managing staff & volunteers to deliver in the Big Society agenda.

Strategic Business and Financial Planning in Voluntary and Third Sector Organisations

Skills to develop your strategic business plan and position for the future

Networks, Partnerships and Stakeholder Relations

A module to help you assess, determine and negotiate your position in the Big Society

Voluntary Sector Governance

Learn about developments and change in governance regulations and determine the future role of your management board.

The full cost of this qualification is currently £1,380 per person. With funded places available from £95 per person, anyone interested in taking up this qualification is urged to book their place now for January 2012.

LATEST FUNDING NEWS: Funding and qualification now opened up to the North

Chorley, Lancashire

23rd January 2012

Book your place here

Manchester

10th January 2012

Book your place here

Manchester

20th January 2012

Book your place here

Delivered by Edge Hill
University

West

To date funding for this qualification has only been available to people working in Voluntary / Third Sector organisations in Lancashire.

However due to the significant impact and importance of this qualification to the sectors future, The Big Lottery have asked that for this final phase we open up this funding opportunity to voluntary sector organisations based in Greater Manchester, Cheshire, Merseyside and Cumbria.

As a result the PG Certificate in Voluntary Sector Management is now available at the following venues in January 2012:

Lancashire - The Woodland Centre, Southport Road, Chorley

Manchester - Armstrong House, Manchester Technology Centre, Manchester

Blackpool - The Solaris Centre, Harrowside, New South Promenade, Blackpool

Funding and places for this programme are limited. Don't miss out on yours.

BOOK YOUR PLACE HERE TODAY.